Coffee With a Ranger

Meet on the Cedar Grove Lodge patio for a cup of joe with a ranger. Bring your coffee and questions about how to make the best out of your visit to Kings Canyon. Informal, ongoing, 2 hours

Meadow Talk

Meet at the end of the Zumwalt Meadow boardwalk (a 15 minute walk from the parking lot) to hear stories about the bears, geology, or culture of Kings Canyon. 20 minutes

Critter Talk

Join a ranger outside the Cedar Grove Visitor Center to learn about the animals that call these mountains home. 20 minutes

Evening Programs

Come to the Cedar Grove Amphitheater to discover more about Kings Canyon National Park. 45 minutes

Friday: "The Rocks Don't Lie" Discover the story of this dramatic landscape and the events that created the majestic Sierra Nevada.

Saturday: "Bears: A Symbol of the Wild" Bears are a majestic, mysterious and have captivated us for thousands of years. Learn about these fascinating animals and how we can protect them for future generations.

Ranger on the Trails

Throughout any given day, watch for park rangers who may be "roving" the trails to answer your questions.

The Cedar Grove Visitor Center will be closed Monday through Thursday. It will re-open for information only (no merchandise) from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. It will close for the season on September 18th at 5:00 PM.
